Welcome Message

Dear All,

It is a matter of great pleasure that ISPNS along with the Department of Neurosurgery, All India Institute of Medical Sciences, New Delhi under the patronage of WFNS Peripheral Nerve Surgery Committee is organizing the Biennial Conference of the Indian Society of Peripheral Nerve Surgery ISPNSCON 2026, at AIIMS New Delhi from 8th January, 2026 to 11th January, 2026.

The theme of the conference is “Recent Updates in Peripheral Nerve Surgery”

The scientific committee will lay out a state of the art, educational and scientific programme encompassing plenary lectures, breakout sessions, workshops, free and award paper and poster presentations, by renowned experts.

We take pride in welcoming each one of you to this academic extravaganza. We are confident that with the help of your participation and contribution, this will be an unforgettable, fruitful and memorable learning experience.

New Delhi, the capital of India, is a vibrant blend of history and modernity. Rich in cultural heritage, it is home to iconic landmarks like the Red Fort, India Gate, Qutub Minar, and Humayun's Tomb. The city reflects centuries of architectural evolution and has served as the seat of power for many dynasties. Today, New Delhi is a bustling metropolis with a diverse population, thriving markets, world-class institutions, and a dynamic political center. Its unique mix of the old and new makes it a fascinating and essential part of India's identity.

We look forward to your presence to share a common platform, discuss, deliberate and come to a consensus regarding contentious issues. You will return with some of the most cherished memories, enhanced knowledge and inspiration for improvement.

A warm welcome to ISPNSCON 2026 at New Delhi.

Regards,

Dr. Deepak Agrawal

Places to Visit in and around Delhi

India Gate – Symbol of Valor

India Gate is one of Delhi's most iconic landmarks, built in memory of the soldiers who laid down their lives in World War I. Surrounded by lush gardens, this majestic arch draws tourists and locals alike for picnics and evening strolls. The beautifully lit structure at night adds to the charm, making it a perfect spot for reflection and remembrance.

Lotus Temple – A Symbol of Peace and Unity

The Lotus Temple, shaped like a blooming white lotus, is an architectural marvel and a global symbol of peace and oneness. Belonging to the Bahá'í Faith, this temple is open to people of all religions, promoting harmony and spiritual reflection. Located in South Delhi, the temple is built entirely of white marble and features 27 petals arranged in a lotus shape. The serene surroundings and calm interiors encourage silent meditation. There are no idols, rituals, or sermons—just pure silence and spiritual atmosphere.

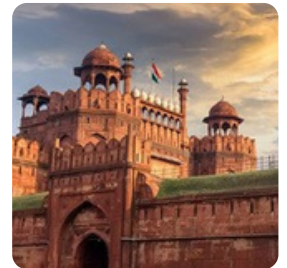

Akshardham Temple – Spiritual Splendor

A masterpiece of architecture and devotion, Akshardham Temple offers a glimpse into India's rich spiritual and cultural heritage. The temple complex features stunning carvings, a musical fountain show, boat rides, and exhibits showcasing ancient Indian wisdom. This place blends peace, beauty, and learning, making it a must-visit destination.

Red Fort – Glorious Past

A UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Red Fort is a magnificent monument of Mughal grandeur. Built from red sandstone, this fort was the main residence of Mughal emperors for centuries. Visitors can explore its historic halls, gardens, and museums while imagining the splendor of ancient India. Don't miss the evening sound and light show.

Lodhi Garden – Peace in the City

Nestled in the heart of Delhi, Lodhi Garden is an oasis of tranquility amidst urban chaos. With centuries-old tombs, well-maintained paths, and lush greenery, it's a favorite spot for morning walks, yoga, and photography. The mix of history and nature creates a unique and relaxing atmosphere.

ISKCON Temple – Soulful Serenity

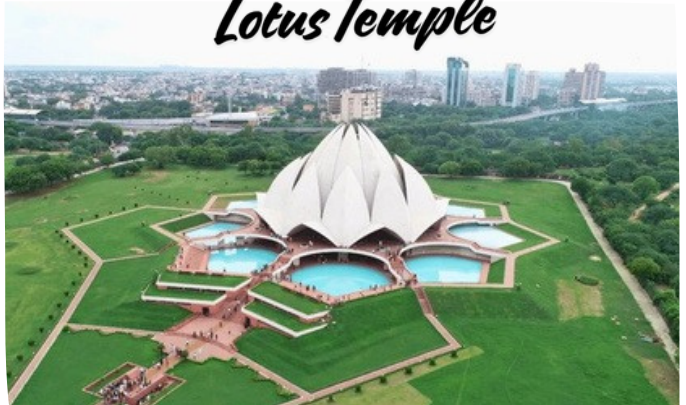

The ISKCON Temple in East of Kailash is a spiritual haven. Dedicated to Lord Krishna, this temple features devotional chants, spiritual lectures, a vegetarian café, and evening aarti sessions. The peaceful vibes and architectural beauty attract visitors from all walks of life.
